

REDFERN JARJUM COLLEGE

This Code of Conduct applies to all employees of Redfern Jarjum College whether employed on a permanent, temporary, casual basis or volunteer.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Code of Conduct

The aim of this Code is to outline the standards of behaviour expected of all employees of Redfern Jarjum College.

This Code does not attempt to provide a detailed and exhaustive list of what to do in every aspect of your work. Instead, it sets out general expectations of the standards of behaviour required.

The Code places an obligation on all employees to take responsibility for their own conduct and to work with colleagues cooperatively to achieve a consultative and collaborative workplace where people are happy and proud to work.

Who has to comply with the Code of Conduct?

By accepting employment with Redfern Jarjum College, you must be aware of and comply with this Code.

Therefore, you must:

- (a) conduct yourself, both personally and professionally in a manner that upholds the ethos and reputation of Redfern Jarjum College;
- (b) comply with Redfern Jarjum College's policies and procedures;
- (c) act ethically and responsibly; and
- (d) be accountable for your actions and decisions.

Contractors and Volunteers

Contractors, consultants and volunteers working with Redfern Jarjum College must be aware of this Code and conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the conduct described in it. Conduct that is not consistent with the conduct set out in this Code may result in the engagement of a contractor, consultant or volunteer being terminated.

If you are engaging or managing external consultants, contractors or volunteers, it is your responsibility to make them aware of Redfern Jarjum College's expectations of conduct during the period of their engagement.

General

This Code is not intended to be contractual in nature and does not impose any contractual obligations on Redfern Jarjum College. Redfern Jarjum College reserves the right at its sole discretion to vary or cancel this Code at any time.

Nothing in this Code should be taken to limit the circumstances in respect of which Redfern Jarjum College may take disciplinary action in respect of an employee.

1. What is expected of you as an employee?

As an employee, you should be aware of Redfern Jarjum College's policies and procedures, particularly those that apply to your work. Many of these are available online; others may be made available to you through induction and training and development programs.

If you are uncertain about the scope or content of a policy with which you must comply, you should seek clarification from your Principal.

You should also be familiar with the legislation under which you are employed as this may specify requirements with which you need to comply.

As an employee of Redfern Jarjum College, you are expected to:

- (a) perform your duties to the best of your ability and be accountable for your performance;
- (b) follow reasonable instructions given by your supervisor or their delegate;
- (c) comply with lawful directions;
- (d) carry out your duties in a professional, competent and conscientious manner, while seeking suitable opportunities to improve your knowledge and skills, including through participation in relevant professional development;
- (e) act honestly and in good faith in fulfilling your duties;
- (f) be courteous and responsive in dealing with your colleagues, Children, parents and members of the public;
- (g) work collaboratively with your colleagues; and
- (h) ensure that your conduct, whether during or outside working hours, is consistent with the ethos of Redfern Jarjum College and does not damage the reputation of Redfern Jarjum College.

2. What happens if I breach the Code of Conduct?

As an employee of Redfern Jarjum College, you hold a position of trust and are accountable for your actions.

- 2.1 The consequences of inappropriate behaviour and breaches of this Code will depend on the nature of the breach.
- 2.2 Employees should report possible breaches by colleagues to their supervisor or the Principal. If the possible breach is by their supervisor, then it should be reported to the Principal.
- 2.3 Factors Redfern Jarjum College may consider when deciding what action to take may include:
 - (a) the seriousness of the breach;
 - (b) the likelihood of the breach occurring again;
 - (c) whether the employee has committed the breach more than once;
 - (d) the risk the breach poses to employees, Children or any others; and
 - (e) whether the breach would be serious enough to warrant formal disciplinary action.
- 2.4 Actions that may be taken by Redfern Jarjum College in respect of a breach of the Code include management or remedial action, training or disciplinary action ranging from a warning to termination of employment. Redfern Jarjum College will reserve the right to determine in its entirety the response to any breach of this Code.

3. REQUIRED REPORTING

Employees are required to report certain information to Redfern Jarjum College.

- 3.1 All employees are required to inform the Principal if they are charged with or convicted of a serious offence (those punishable by 12 months or more in jail). You must also inform the Principal if you become the subject of an Apprehended Violence Order.
- 3.2 If, through your employment with Redfern Jarjum College, you become aware of a serious crime committed by another person, you are required to report it to the Principal, who may be required to inform the police.
- 3.3 As a School employee, you must report to the Principal:
- (a) any concerns that you may have about the safety, welfare and well being of a child or young person;
 - (b) any concerns you may have about the inappropriate actions of any other employee, contractor or volunteer that involves children or young people;
 - (c) any concerns you may have about any other employee, contractor or volunteer engaging in 'reportable conduct' or any allegation of 'reportable conduct' that has been made to you; and
 - (d) if you become aware that an employee, contractor or volunteer has been charged with or convicted of an offence (including a finding of guilt without the court proceeding to a conviction) involving 'reportable conduct'; and
 - (e) if you become the subject of allegations of 'reportable conduct' whether or not they relate to your employment in Redfern Jarjum College.
 - (f) if you're Working With Children Check clearance is cancelled or if you are or become a *disqualified*¹ person from working or volunteering with children.

You should refer to Redfern Jarjum College's Child Protection Policy for further information about these obligations.

- 3.4 Please note that teachers and some other employees have mandatory reporting obligations under the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 (NSW) where they have reasonable grounds to suspect a child under the age of 16 years is at risk of significant harm and have current concerns about the safety, welfare and wellbeing of the child. You should refer to Redfern Jarjum College's Child Protection Policy for further information about these obligations.

¹ As defined in the NSW Child Protection (Working With Children) Act 2012 Section 18

4. RESPECT FOR PEOPLE

Redfern Jarjum College expects employees to treat each other with respect and courtesy. Our daily interaction with others reflects on the school's reputation. Therefore, all employees are expected to be approachable, courteous and prompt in dealing with other people, including students, parents, other employees and members of the community.

- 4.1 Employees who work with children have a special responsibility in presenting themselves as appropriate role models for those children. Modelling effective leadership and respect in your interactions with children can have a profoundly positive influence on a children's personal and social development.
- 4.2 Similarly, it is important for you to treat your colleagues, other employees, contractors, Children and parents with respect. Rude or insulting behaviour, including verbal and non-verbal aggression, abusive, threatening, intimidating or derogatory language and physical abuse or intimidation towards other employees, contractors, children and parents is unacceptable. You must not use information and communication technologies, such as email, mobile phones, text or instant messaging, blogs, social media sites and other websites to engage in this type of behaviour.
- 4.3 You must not discriminate against, or harass for any unlawful reason, or bully for any reason any employee, contractor, children or parent. Your obligations in this regard, including the list of unlawful reasons, are set out in Redfern Jarjum College's Discrimination, Harassment and Bullying Policy. Unlawful harassment or discrimination may constitute an offence under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977 or federal discrimination legislation. Bullying may be a breach of your obligations under work health and safety legislation or your duty of care at common law.
- 4.4 You should ensure that you are aware of Redfern Jarjum College's Discrimination, Harassment and Bullying Policy. If you believe you are being unlawfully harassed or discriminated against or bullied:
 - (a) where you feel comfortable ask the person to stop, or make it clear that you find the behaviour offensive or unwelcome. It may be useful to speak with your supervisor or Department Head in the first instance to seek guidance on how to do this; and/or
 - (b) raise the issue as a grievance in accordance with Redfern Jarjum College's Discrimination, Harassment and Bullying Policy as soon as possible after the incident(s) have occurred.
- 4.5 Redfern Jarjum College takes reports of unlawful discrimination and harassment or bullying seriously and will consider action it considers appropriate if such conduct is found to have occurred including disciplining or dismissing offenders. Many incidents can be addressed effectively if reported early.
- 4.6 If you lie about or exaggerate a complaint, Redfern Jarjum College will view this as a very serious matter, and you may be disciplined or dismissed.

5. DUTY OF CARE AND WORK HEALTH AND SAFETY

As an employee of Redfern Jarjum College, you have a duty of care to children in your charge to take all reasonable steps to protect children from risks of harm that can be reasonably predicted.

The duty encompasses a wide range of matters, including (but not limited to):

- the provision of adequate supervision
- ensuring grounds, premises and equipment are safe for students' use
- implementing strategies to prevent inappropriate behaviour from occurring in the school, and
- providing medical assistance (if competent to do so), or seeking assistance from a medically trained person to aid a student who is injured or becomes sick at school.

Duty of care

- 5.1 As an employee of Redfern Jarjum College, you have a duty of care to children in your charge. That duty is to take all reasonable steps to protect children from risks of harm that can be reasonably predicted. For example, risks from known hazards and from foreseeable risk situations against which preventative measures can be taken. The standard of care that is required, for example the degree of supervision, needs to be commensurate with the children' maturity and ability.
- 5.2 Duty of care to children applies during all activities and functions conducted or arranged by Redfern Jarjum College. The risks associated with any activity need to be assessed and managed before the activity is undertaken.
- 5.3 You should ensure that you are aware of Redfern Jarjum College's policies relating to Duty of Care and Excursions.

Work health and safety

- 5.4 You also have a responsibility under work health and safety legislation to take care of your own health and safety at work. It is also your responsibility to ensure that your activities do not place at risk the health and safety of your co-workers, Children or other persons that you may come into contact with at work.
- 5.5 Considerations of safety relate to both physical and psychological wellbeing of individuals.
- 5.6 You should ensure that you are aware of and Redfern Jarjum College's Work Health & Safety Statement

Supervision of Children

- 5.7 You should take all reasonable steps to ensure that no children is exposed to any unnecessary risk of injury.
- 5.8 You should be familiar with and comply with Redfern Jarjum College's evacuation procedures.
- 5.9 You should be familiar with and comply with Redfern Jarjum College's supervision policy.
- 5.10 Children should not be left unsupervised either within or outside of class. You should be punctual to class and allocated supervision.
- 5.11 You should remain with children at after school activities until all children have been collected. In the event that a children is not collected you should remain with the children until collected, or seek advice from your Principal.

- 5.12 Playground supervision is an integral part of the responsibility of staff. It must take precedence over other activities. It is unacceptable to be late. You should actively supervise your designated area, being vigilant and constantly moving around.
- 5.13 You should be alert to inappropriate behaviour or any other form of discriminatory behaviour, and report incidents to the appropriate staff member. Additional detail about children's behaviour is set out in Redfern Jarjum College policy dealing with behaviour management.
- 5.13 Injured children should be attended to by the supervising staff member. Should additional assistance be required you should contact the Principal. Ensure that appropriate action is taken if there is an injury and recorded in the accident report.
- 5.14 You should ensure that you understand and comply with Redfern Jarjum College's policy on medication and sickness in regard to the storage and administration of prescribed medication.

6. PROFESSIONAL RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN EMPLOYEES AND CHILDREN

As an employee of Redfern Jarjum College, you are expected to always behave in ways that promote the safety, welfare and well-being of children and young people. You must actively seek to prevent harm to children and young people, and to support those who have been harmed.

While not all employees are required to manage and supervise students, it is important for all school employees to understand and observe Redfern Jarjum College's child protection policies.

Supervision of Children

- 6.1 You should avoid situations where you are alone in an enclosed space with a children. Where you are left with the responsibility of a single children you should ensure that this is in an open space in view of others. Where this is not possible or practical it should be discussed with the Principal.
- 6.2 You should never drive a children in your car unless you have specific permission from your the Principal to do so. In the event of an emergency you should exercise discretion but then report the matter to your Principal
- 6.3 If you wish to conduct a private conversation with a children you should consider the time and venue carefully to avoid placing yourselves in a vulnerable situation. It is preferable to leave the door open. You should not locate yourself between the children and the door.
- 6.4 When confiscating personal items, such as mobile phones or hats, ask children to hand them to you. Only take items directly from children in circumstances where concern exists for the safety of the children or others and your own safety is not jeopardised by this action

Physical contact with Children

- 6.5 You must not impose physical punishment on a children in the course of your professional duties.
- 6.6 When physical contact with a children is a necessary part of the teaching/learning experience you must exercise caution to ensure that the contact is appropriate and acceptable. You should seek reassurance from the children by asking for a volunteer if necessary to demonstrate a particular activity.
- 6.7 Attention to the toileting needs of young children should be done with caution. It may be appropriate to have the door open. For children with a disability the management of toileting needs should be included in the children's individual management plan.
- 6.8 When congratulating a children, a handshake, pat on the shoulder or brief hug are acceptable as long as the children is comfortable with this action. Kissing of Children is not acceptable.
- 6.9 Assessing a children who is injured or ill may necessitate touching the children. Always advise the children of what you intend doing and seek their consent.
- 6.10 Sometimes in ensuring duty of care you may be required to restrain a children from harming him or herself or others using reasonable force. Any such strategy must be in keeping with Redfern Jarjum College's behaviour management practices or individual children management plans. You should report and document any such incidents.

Relationships with Children

- 6.11 You must not have a romantic or sexual relationship with a children. It is irrelevant whether the relationship is homosexual or heterosexual, consensual or non-consensual or condoned by parents or caregivers. You are reminded of:
- (a) the law prohibiting sexual relations with a person under the age of consent (16 years); and
 - (b) the law prohibiting sexual relations between a teacher and their children under the age of 18 years.
- 6.12 You must not develop a relationship with any children that is, or that can be interpreted as having a personal rather than a professional interest in a children. An overly familiar relationship with any children (including any adult children) that you are responsible for teaching, tutoring, advising, assessing, or for whom you provide pastoral or welfare support raises serious questions of conflict of interest, trust, confidence, dependency, and of equality of treatment. Such relationships may also have a negative impact on the teaching and learning environment for other children and colleagues, and may carry a serious reputational risk for Redfern Jarjum College.
- 6.13 If you consider that a children is being overly familiar, seeking to establish a personal relationship with you or has developed a 'crush' on you, you should report your concerns to your supervisor and/or the Principal as soon as possible so that a plan can be developed to manage the situation effectively and sensitively.
- 6.14 At all times when speaking with children's care must be taken to use appropriate language. You must always treat children with respect and without favouritism. There is no place for sarcasm, derogatory remarks, inappropriate familiarity or offensive comments.
- 6.15 You may, as part of your pastoral care role, engage in discussion with children. This is entirely appropriate. However, you must be cautious about making personal comments about a children or asking questions that probe your own or a children's sexuality or relationships. You must not hold conversations with a children of an intimately personal nature where you disclose information about yourself.
- 6.16 You must not:
- (a) invite children to your home;
 - (b) visit children at their home; or
 - (c) attend parties or socialise with children,
- unless you have the express permission of the Principal and their parents or care giver.
- 6.17 You must not engage in tutoring or coaching children from Redfern Jarjum College without the express permission of the Principal.
- 6.18 You must not invite Children to join your personal electronic social networking site or accept children' invitations to join their social networking site (see Section 7 - Appropriate use of electronic communication and social networking sites).
- 6.19 You must not give gifts to Children. You should also carefully consider your position before accepting any gift from a children (see Section 10 - Declaring gifts, benefits and bribes)
- 6.20 Wherever practical, you should avoid teaching or being involved in educational decisions involving family members or close friends. Where it is not practical to avoid such situations completely, another member of staff should make any significant decisions relating to the children's assessments and have those endorsed by a supervisor.

- 6.21 You should be aware of, and sensitive to, children with culturally diverse or indigenous backgrounds and cultural practices that may influence the interpretation of your behaviour.

Child protection

- 6.22 You must be aware of and comply with Redfern Jarjum College's Child Protection Policy.
- 6.23 As set out in Section 3 you must report any concerns you may have about any other employee, contractor or volunteer engaging in 'reportable conduct' or any allegation of 'reportable conduct' that has been made to you to the Principal. This includes self disclosure if the allegation involves you.
- 6.24 Broadly, 'reportable conduct' includes:
- (a) any sexual offence, or sexual misconduct, committed against, with, or in the presence of, a child (including a child pornography offence); or
 - (b) any assault, ill-treatment or neglect of a child; or
 - (c) any behaviour that causes psychological harm to a child,
- whether or not the child consents.
- 6.25 Reportable conduct does not extend to:
- (a) conduct that is reasonable for the purposes of the discipline, management or care of children, having regard to the age, maturity, health or other characteristics of the children and to any relevant codes of conduct or professional standards, or
 - (b) the use of physical force that, in all the circumstances, is trivial or negligible, but only if the matter is to be investigated and the result of the investigation recorded under workplace employment procedures; or
 - (c) conduct that is exempted from notification by a Class or Kind Agreement².
- 6.26 For further information about 'reportable conduct' see Redfern Jarjum College's Child Protection Policy.
- 6.27 The requirements outlined in Section 6 in relation Supervision, Physical Contact and Relationships with Children set professional boundaries in relation to your behaviour. They make clear what behaviour is unacceptable and could amount to reportable conduct.

The Working with Children Check

- 6.28 The Working with Children Check is a prerequisite for paid and unpaid child-related work. Under Part 2, section 6 of the Child Protection (Working With Children) Act 2012, child-related work is defined as work in a specific child-related role or face-to-face contact with children in a child-related sector³.

² A Class or Kind Agreement is an agreement between the Ombudsman and an agency (eg the Association of Independent Schools of NSW on behalf of its member schools) that allows for certain kinds of less serious reportable conduct to be exempted from notification to the Ombudsman but the Head of Agency must still conduct a workplace investigation.

³ If you are already in paid child-related work, or you are a volunteer, you will be phased in over a five-year period commencing 15 June 2013, according to schedule provided by the Office of the Children's Guardian.

- 6.29 You must have a Working with Children Check clearance which will be valid for a period of five years. You are responsible for renewing your Working with Children Check every five years.

7. APPROPRIATE USE OF ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION AND SOCIAL NETWORKING SITES

Redfern Jarjum College provides electronic communication facilities for its children and employees for educational or administrative purposes. It monitors and views data stored or transmitted using the school's facilities. By its nature, electronic communication is a fast and informal way of communicating. However, once a document or image has been sent there is no way to recall it and it exists forever.

7.1 You must comply with Redfern Jarjum College's Social Networking Policy.

This includes:

- (a) exercising good judgment when using electronic mail, following the principles of ethical behaviour;
- (b) using appropriate and professional language in electronic mail messages;
- (c) being aware that if an issue addressed in an email becomes the subject of a legal dispute, then those emails would be discoverable: that is, the court and all parties to the dispute would be entitled to see them;
- (d) not sending messages that are harassing, discriminatory, defamatory, threatening, abusive or obscene;
- (e) not inviting children into your personal social networking site or accept an invitation to theirs;
- (f) not using social networking sites to email or contact children;
- (g) remembering transmission, storage, promotion or display of offensive, defamatory, or harassing material is strictly forbidden; and
- (h) reporting any situations where you become aware of the inappropriate use of electronic communication and social networking sites.

7.2 You must never use Redfern Jarjum College's networks to view, upload, download or circulate any of the following materials:

- (a) sexually related or pornographic messages or material;
- (b) violent or hate-related messages or material;
- (c) racist or other offensive messages aimed at a particular group or individual;
- (d) malicious, libellous or slanderous messages or material; or
- (e) subversive or other messages or material related to illegal activities.

8. USE OF ALCOHOL, DRUGS AND TOBACCO

Work Health and Safety is of fundamental importance to Redfern Jarjum College. Maintaining a safe work environment requires everyone's continuous cooperation.

- 8.1 You are responsible for ensuring your capacity to perform your duties is not impaired by the use of alcohol or drugs and that the use of such substances does not put at risk you or any other person's health and safety.
- 8.2 As an employee of Redfern Jarjum College you must:
- (a) not attend work under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs or non-prescribed and/or restricted substances;
 - (b) not consume alcohol, illegal drugs or non-prescribed and/or restricted substances while at work;
 - (c) notify your supervisor if you are aware that your work performance or conduct could be adversely affected as a result of the effect of a prescribed drug;
 - (d) take action to resolve any alcohol or other drug-related problems that you have; and
 - (e) consult with your supervisor or Principal if you are concerned about working with other employees who may be affected by drugs or alcohol.

Drugs

- 8.3 As an employee of Redfern Jarjum College, you must not:
- (a) have illegal drugs in your possession while at work. Any illegal drugs found on School property or in the possession of any person on School property may result in disciplinary action including the termination of your employment and referral to the Police;
 - (b) give children or other employees illegal drugs or restricted substances, or encourage or condone their use; and
 - (c) supply or administer prescription or non-prescription drugs to children unless authorised to do so.

Alcohol

- 8.4 You must not take alcohol to Redfern Jarjum College or consume it during school hours or at any school function at any time, including those events conducted outside school premises unless expressly permitted to do so by the Principal. A school function is any occasion organised by Redfern Jarjum College and/or in Redfern Jarjum College's name, including dances, farewells, excursions, sporting fixtures and fund raising events.
- 8.5 You must not:
- (a) purchase alcohol for, or give alcohol to, any School children (or to any other person under the age of 18 years); and
 - (b) encourage or condone the use of alcohol by Children of any age during educational activities.

Tobacco

- 8.6 You must not smoke or permit smoking in any School buildings, enclosed area or on School grounds. This includes all buildings, gardens, sports fields, cars and car parks.
- 8.7 You must not purchase tobacco or tobacco products for any School children, or give them tobacco or tobacco products.

9. IDENTIFYING AND MANAGING CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Private interests can, or have the potential to, influence a person's capacity to perform their duties and in turn compromise their integrity and that of Redfern Jarjum College.

- 9.1 As an employee of Redfern Jarjum College, you must not act in conflict with Redfern Jarjum College's best interests. A conflict of interests can involve:
- (a) pecuniary interests i.e. financial gain or loss or other material benefits;
 - (b) non-pecuniary interests i.e. favours, personal relationships and associations.
- It may not only be about your own interests. It may include:
- (a) the interests of members of your immediate family or relatives (where these interests are known);
 - (b) the interests of your own business partners or associates, or those of your workplace; or
 - (c) the interests of your friends.
- 9.2 When faced with a situation in which conflict of interests may be present, you should report any potential or real conflict to the Principal.
- 9.3 You should also report situations where a superior or colleague who has an identified conflict is, or may be perceived as, unduly influencing your decision to the Principal.

10. DECLARING GIFTS, BENEFITS AND BRIBES

As an employee of Redfern Jarjum College, you may be offered a gift or benefit as an act of gratitude. There are some circumstances when to refuse a gift would be perceived as rude, insulting or hurtful.

You are expected to exercise sound judgment when deciding whether to accept a gift or benefit.

- 10.1 If you are offered a bribe (i.e. anything given in order to persuade you to act improperly), you must refuse it, explain why it is not appropriate, and immediately report the matter to the Principal.
- 10.2 Accepting gifts and other benefits has the potential to compromise your position by creating a sense of obligation and undermining your impartiality. It may also affect the reputation of Redfern Jarjum College and its staff. You must not create the impression that any person or organisation is influencing Redfern Jarjum College or the decisions or actions of any of its employees.
- 10.3 If you are offered a gift or benefit, you should always consider the value and purpose of a gift or benefit before making any decision about accepting it. A gift that is more than nominal value ($50) must not become personal property. You should either politely refuse it or advise the contributor that you will accept it on behalf of Redfern Jarjum College.
- 10.4 When such a gift is accepted, you must advise your Principal. They will determine how it should be treated and make a record of its receipt. Depending on the nature and value of the gift, it may be appropriate to record the gift in the asset register as a donation or other such record established for that purpose.
- 10.5 Sometimes employees might, in the course of their work, win a prize of significant monetary value e.g. a computer, from another organisation. Prizes are usually considered the property of Redfern Jarjum College. If you win a prize you must advise your supervisor or the Principal who will determine how the prize should be treated and recorded.

11. COMMUNICATION AND PROTECTING CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Communication

- 11.1 You are required to comply with Redfern Jarjum College's Pastoral Care documentation in regards to communicating with parents at Redfern Jarjum College.
- 11.2 You should be mindful of confidentiality when in discussions with parents. You cannot provide a guarantee of confidentiality if the matter under discussion requires mandatory reporting.
- 11.3 You should not disclose personal information about another staff member to children or parents or discuss their work performance, except if authorised by the Principal in the context of grievance resolution.
- 11.4 All matters discussed in staff meetings and staff memos are to be treated confidentially and not discussed with children, members of Redfern Jarjum College community, or the public.
- 11.5 The media should not be given access to children or allowed entry to Redfern Jarjum College without the express permission of the Principal. You should not make any comments to the media about Redfern Jarjum College, children or parents without the express permission of the Principal.

Confidential information

- 11.6 As a Redfern Jarjum College employee, you must only use confidential information for the work-related purpose it was intended.
- 11.7 Unless authorised to do so by legislation, you must not disclose or use any confidential information without the express permission of the Principal.
- 11.8 You must make sure that confidential information, in any form, cannot be accessed by unauthorised people.

Privacy

- 11.9 Sensitive and personal information should only be provided to people, either within or outside Redfern Jarjum College, who are authorised to have access to it.
- 11.10 You should always exercise caution and sound judgment in discussing the personal information of children, parents, staff and other people with other school employees. Normally information should be limited to those who need to know in order to conduct their duties, or to those who can assist in carrying out Redfern Jarjum College's work because of their expertise.

12. RECORD KEEPING

- 12.1 All employees have a responsibility:
- (a) to create and maintain full, accurate and honest records of their activities, decisions and other business transactions, and
 - (b) to capture or store records in Redfern Jarjum College's record systems.
- 12.2 You must not destroy or remove records without appropriate authority.
- 12.3 Senior staff have a responsibility to ensure that the employees reporting to them comply with their records management obligations.
- 12.4 Teachers and teacher assistants are responsible for assessing children's work, and must do so accurately, fairly and in a manner that is consistent with relevant policy and the requirements of Redfern Jarjum College.
- 12.5 Employees must maintain the confidentiality of all official information and documents which are not publicly available or which have not been published.

13. COPYRIGHT AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 13.1 When creating material, you need to ensure the intellectual property rights of others are not infringed and information is recorded about any third party copyright/other rights included in materials.
- 13.2 Advice relating to sharing or licensing Redfern Jarjum College’s intellectual property should be sought from the Principal.
- 13.3 Redfern Jarjum College cannot give away or assign its intellectual property without the approval of the Principal.
- 13.4 If you develop material that relates to your employment with Redfern Jarjum College, the copyright in that material will belong to Redfern Jarjum College. This may apply even if the material was developed in your own time or at home.
- 13.5 You should not use Redfern Jarjum College’s intellectual property (including copyright) for private purposes without obtaining written permission from the Principal.

14. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I _____ have read, understood and agree to comply with the terms of this Code of Conduct.

Signed

Dated